The Opportunity

- Australia and New Zealand have long been popular destinations for their lifestyle, scenery, and exciting opportunities.
  - If you are an experienced greenkeeper and eligible for either country's Working Holiday Maker Visa Program, you can live, work and travel in either country and self-fund the entire experience.
  - You can choose to stay on after your work contract is completed and visit both countries. You could have your family and friends travel down to visit and experience this part of the world as well!
  - EnvoyGolf facilitates this by securing you a well-paying job at a golf club before you leave home.
- Working as a greenkeeper at golf clubs offers exposure to a
- new workplace environment, different course conditions and work practices, and the opportunity to learn new skills, build lasting friendships, and be an integral part of the community.
- EnvoyGolf can connect you with golf courses in cities and
- country towns and includes some of the world's best.

What are Clubs Looking for?

- Experienced greenkeepers; this means having two or more seasons of experience.
- Above all else, you must be a team player with a good work ethic and attitude. You will be a critical member of a busy crew.
- To be proficient with most golf course maintenance equipment and have a good understanding of how a golf course maintenance team operates.
- Pay high attention to detail.
- You must be able to cut greens, tees, fairways and rough with ride-on and pedestrian mowers.
- Experience hand-watering and using wetting agents is a plus.

The Process

- Decide whether you would like to work in Australia or New Zealand or are open to either, and check your eligibility for a Working Holiday Visa. You must be eligible to participate.
- If you are eligible, you will automatically be provided with a link to the general application form and information on how to complete it. This will include providing a short introductory video of yourself.
- After we have received your application, we will send you information on jobs available at golf clubs in Australia or New Zealand and you can apply for those that interest you most. We communicate with you and our golf club clients through the recruitment process.

Note: Golf clubs choose who they recruit. While our goal is to secure all applicants a role, we cannot guarantee this.

- Once you have secured a role, we will work with you to obtain the appropriate visa.
- We will then coordinate your inbound flights and an orientation program at your arrival city. We will also assist you with your ongoing accommodation in-country, transportation/vehicles, phone services, superannuation, banking, and insurance. We anticipate the orientation dates will be around the 20th and 27th of October.
- Once you have arrived at your destination and have commenced working at your new employer, we will check in with you on a regular basis.
- Our team will be available throughout the process to assist you with these steps and answer any questions.

How the Visa Works

- If candidates come to Australia or New Zealand on a Working Holiday Visa, they must apply and pay for this themselves. This is easily done through the immigration websites of both countries.
- This visa lets people 18 to 30 years old (or 35 years old for some countries) have their first extended holiday in Australia or New Zealand and work here to help fund their trip.
- You must hold a passport from an eligible country. These are listed on both countries' immigration websites.
- If you are not eligible for the Working Holiday Maker Visa for the reason of age or passport, there may be another option for you, if you have more than 3 years of experience. Just contact EnvoyGolf to find out more.
